

AGcelerate Lab 2019

SCALING from IDEAS to large-scale AGRIBUSINESSES

Real-world outcomes for young entrepreneurs within agri-food

www.agcelerateglobal.org

August 12-14, 2019

Innovation Boost Camp at RUCID and other farm visits*

August 15-16, 2019

Collaborative innovation lab & workshop, Makerere University

DAY 1: August 15, 2019

08.00 Registration and coffee. Expectations from the participants ALL

8.45 Welcome, Objectives of the Workshop

Prof. Fred Kabi (Makerere University Dept of Agricultural Production), Dr Catherine Tindiwensi (Makerere University Business School MAK), Dr Teun Dekker (Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences SLU)

9.00 Opening of the workshop & speech Senior Official
Makerere University

10.00 Agriculture is a goldmine! Denis Kabiito: Agripreneur & CEO
Young Farmers Federation of Uganda

10.45 Questionnaire distributed on research subject devised by SLU/MAK

11.00 Coffee

11.30 Case Study 1: IDEA phase

Ambrose Kamywa: Makerere

University TBC

Short presentation of the IDEA

11.45 Group work – Questions around what she/he should do next

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Reporting back by the Groups

14.45 Agriculture & Agripreneurship in Sweden

Vera Sadovska

SLU

15.15 Coffee

15.30 Pitch by 10 Aspiring Agripreneurs

17.00 Conclusions of the pitch and Wrap up Day 1

Day 2 August 16, 2019

9.00 Case Study 2: Small scale Agribusiness short presentation

Ms Ritah

Najjemba

Oikos Youth White Meat Suppliers, Uganda

9.30 Group work – Questions around what she/he should do next?

10.30 Reporting back by the Groups

11.00 Case Study 3: Successful Agribusiness

Ms Lovin

Kobusingye

Lovin presents first part of her story of Kati Farms, Uganda

11.30 Group work What should she/he do next?

12.30 Entrepreneur presents what he actually did

Ms Lovin

Kobusingye

13.00 LUNCH

14.00 SCALE and IMPACT - Learnings from the Case Studies

Catherine

Tindiwensi

14.30 Presentations of Erasmus+ projects MAK/SLU teams

15 mins max each

15.45 Key results of questionnaire presented

16.00 Announcement of winner of the competition – Award presented by Senior Representative Makerere University

16.30 Wrap up. Were expectations met? Input for AGcelerate 2020

*Before the workshop, the student participants will have the opportunity to participate in a bootcamp at the RUCID Organic Agriculture Training College, which has an active farm and is implementing many innovative new, and sustainable, technologies. Visits have also been planned to large-scale commercial Ugandan farms and to smaller organisations involved, for example, in urban farming in Kampala.